Biographical / Historical

Arts Unlimited, was a program of aesthetic education in the K-12 schools of northwestern and north central Ohio and was modeled after and was affiliated with the Lincoln Center Institute, the educational division of Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts in New York City. The program began in 1980, and ended around 2002. A more detailed mission statement can be found in box 2, folder 7.

Scope and Contents

The records of Arts Unlimited contain planning material, correspondence, and grant applications from 1972 to 1985, though the bulk of the collection is from 1980 to 1985. Much of the correspondence is to and from Michael Moore, a professor of history and the director of Arts Unlimited in the early 1980s.
